

Jennifer Day The Fun Of Your Love BNA

Debut album of a true challenger, 20-year-old Jennifer Day, proves to be a knockout powerhouse vocalist. The Motown-influenced title track, written by Day with Beth Neilsen Chapman and Annie Roboff sets the tone for this collection of pure pop-country, but it is ballads such as Tell Me I'm The One and I Turn To You where Day's soul and passion shine through. Day has been compared to Patsy Cline and the gritty yearning of Somebody Else's Guy shows why. Day saves her best for the original collaboration, Fearless where her belief in what she's singing is matched by an inspired arrangement that successfully combines country fiddle, with rock guitars to build to a soul-flavored anthem.
